"Turn Your Business Plan into a Practical Management Tool"
At October WINS group meeting

Aurora, Illinois: ----- Kaneland W.I.N.S. (Women-Insight-Networking-Service), will hold its October meeting on Tuesday, October 16, at the Mill Creek Golf Club, 39W525 Herrington Drive, in Geneva. Networking begins at 11:30 a.m., with lunch and a presentation to follow, ending at 1:00 p.m.

This month's speaker is Harriet Parker, Coordinator of the Small Business Development Center at Waubensee Community College

Harriet will be speaking on the topic of creating your business plan, which is not just for "start-ups". Find out how you can create a business plan that is relevant, practical and useful, today and tomorrow.

Reservations are required by October 9, 2007. Call (630) 945-7086, or email membership@kanelandwins.org. Cost for members is $15, and the cost for non-members is $25. Please make your check payable to: Kaneland W.I.N.S. This month's service project is The Good Samaritan Fund. Attendees are requested for cash donations for use by the Fund.

Kaneland W.I.N.S. is a not-for-profit organization providing Kaneland area women opportunities for personal and professional development, networking and service to our community.

Our group meets monthly September through May. Each monthly meeting offers insightful speakers, networking and service opportunities along with a fabulous lunch.

Our annual membership fee is $50 per year, renewable on September 1. As a member of Kaneland W.I.N.S., you will enjoy: a reduced fee for monthly luncheons (a savings of $80 annually); a listing in the membership directory (both printed and on our website); and the opportunity to be a Spotlight Speaker at our luncheons.

Past programs have included such topics as: Tending to your investment portfolio, the experience of networking, the golden rule of referral marketing, taking your dreams to reality, and more.

Our members hail from: Elburn, Sugar Grove, Batavia, St. Charles, Geneva, Aurora, Sycamore, Big Rock, Yorkville, Somonauk, Oswego, Sandwich, DeKalb, Hampshire, Lombard, Wheaton, Naperville, Lisle, and Glen Ellyn.
